

Ipswich School Festival of Music – Choral Festival Workshop Invitation

Saturday 11 October 2025

We are delighted to invite singers to join us for the Ipswich School Festival of Music – Choral Festival, featuring a free workshop and performance with internationally renowned choral conductor Dominic Ellis Peckham, alongside the Suffolk Chamber Choir.

Dominic will lead an afternoon workshop for guest singers, preparing two pieces to be performed in the evening's concert as part of a massed choir:

- Earth Song by Frank Ticheli
- St Nicholas (by St Godric) – prepared on the day with Dominic's unique and inspirational approach

There may also be a specially created improvised piece on the day.

Practical Details

- Workshop time: between 4–6pm (Exact timings TBC)
- Location: Ipswich School, Henley Road Ipswich, as part of the Festival of Music
- No ticket or cost for participating singers – your place is completely free
- Choirs and singers will also enjoy a performance by the Suffolk Chamber Choir, alongside the chance to sing under one of the world's most dynamic choral conductors.

We know this will be a fun and memorable experience, and we would love for as many singers as possible to take part.

How to Sign Up

If you would like to be involved, please email Lynda George at musickenquiries@ipswich.school. We will then add you to the participants' list and send through the full details of the event along with the music PDFs and flyer.

We look forward to welcoming singers for what promises to be a fantastic celebration of choral music!

We also welcome young singers 12-18. If you are still at school - please ask your parents/guardians to sign up for you.

Below are details of the actual evening's concert if you would like to invite friends and family to watch you perform. The concert starts at 7.30pm.
